Profile

As a college graduate of Rocky Mountain College of Art and Design, with a degree in Illustration, I am looking for a job in the art and illustration field. I am hard working, detail and deadline oriented. I am a friendly positive team player. I can do any task when asked. I have been trained in traditional arts, as well as digital. I have a couple illustrations on books, won awards, and have a mural on the side of Cobblestone Too, an antique store.
